Language lab

-WHERE, -ONE, -THING

I will learn to use general words, e.g., everywhere, everyone, everything.

1 Look at the picture and read the story. What was different about the vacation? Check .

- 1 The family traveled to a strange country.
- 2 The family stayed in an unusual place.
- 3 The family met people with colorful names.

Last year my family went on a vacation to Spain. We didn't stay in a hotel. We stayed in an apartment in the center of Valencia! There are many apartment buildings in Valencia where anyone can stay.

We didn't know if the apartment was good or bad. Everyone was very surprised when we opened the door. It was so beautiful and the rooms had different colors, like red and blue.

Our apartment was on the first floor. A Spanish family lived next door to us. We spent a lot of time together. They showed us almost everything in Valencia and one night they cooked something for us. It was a traditional Spanish food called "paella"!

Everywhere we went in Valencia was great. I really liked the names of the streets. They sound so nice! For example, our street was Calle San Bruno. It was near a square called Plaza Don Bosco and near a park called Parque de Marxalenes. I loved it!

2 Read and circle T (True) or F (False).

- 1 The family wanted to stay in a hotel somewhere in the center of Valencia. T / F
- 2 Anyone can stay in an apartment in Valencia. T / F
- 3 No one in the family thought the apartment looked nice. T / F
- 4 The family next door cooked something that people in Spain usually eat. T / F

Everyone enjoys going to the beach. We liked everything we saw. We looked for it everywhere.

He was someone important. They cooked something for us. We stayed somewhere new.

Anyone can see that the sky is blue! He was full and didn't want to eat anything. We can go anywhere we like on vacation.

No one in my family enjoyed the food. There was nothing to do. There is nowhere to go.

3 Read the text on page 4 again and underline words beginning with every-, some-, and any-.

4 Read and match.

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| 1 I was bored. | a It went everywhere on the floor. |

EXPRESSING RULES WITH MUST

I will express rules using must and mustn't.

1 Look at the pictures and read. Which sentence matches the story best? Check .

- 1 The signs tell Lucy that people mustn't do anything in their town.
- 2 The signs help Lucy know what people must or mustn't do.
- 3 The signs show only what people must do in Winston.

Hi, I'm Lucy and today I'm walking around my town, Winston! I'm looking for signs that tell us what to do or what not to do. It's for a school project.

I saw the No Running sign in a café. Children mustn't run around the tables.

The No Talking sign was on the wall in the quiet part of the library. It means you mustn't talk. Shh!

We saw the No Food and Drinks sign in the museum. You mustn't eat or drink there.

The Danger sign was outside a factory. It means you must be careful!

I saw the No Cell Phones sign in the movie theater. You mustn't use your phone when you watch a movie.

I saw the STOP sign on the street. Drivers must stop here before they drive on. If they don't, it's very dangerous.

There are so many rules.
